

Travel and Accommodations

Washington State University and the University of Idaho will jointly host the 18th Inland Northwest Philosophy Conference. WSU and U of I are a mere 8 miles apart, and as such it is natural to think of the Pullman-Moscow area as one community.

Air Travel:

The Pullman-Moscow Regional Airport (PUW) serves the WSU/U of I area. Both the University Inn and the Residence Inn offer a free shuttle service to and from the airport.

In some cases, it may be more economical to fly in to Spokane International Airport (GEG). Wheatland Express offers a bus service to Moscow, ID and Pullman, WA for a nominal fee ($38 each way).

By Car:

The conference itself will be held at the Smith Center for Undergraduate Education (CUE) in Pullman. The website for the CUE has a map insert that can provide more detailed driving directions. Parking is available at an hourly rate in the parking garage beneath the CUE. Refer to WSU's transportation page for alternative parking arrangements.

Accommodations:

Lodging can be obtained either in Pullman (closer to the conference site) or in Moscow (closer to the reception). We have set aside blocks of rooms at the following hotels:

Best Western Plus University Inn

1516 Pullman Road
Moscow, Idaho 83843
Toll Free Phone: (800) 325-8765

Rates: $99/night (plus taxes)

Includes a free breakfast, free wifi, as well as a free beverage coupon for guests over 21. To take advantage of the group rate, make your reservation directly with the hotel (not the national site), and mention the INPC.
