As a GPSA Senator you are committed to the success of the graduate and professional students at the University of Idaho and to the Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA). Below is a list of duties expected of you as a GPSA Senator. This list is taken directly from the GPSA By-Laws as can be found online at www.uidaho.edu/gpsa.

224.00 DUTIES
224.01 Senators shall communicate to their academic units/constituents the actions taken by the GPSA Senate.
   A. Communications shall include at least the following information:
      1. Upcoming events and deadlines;
      2. General description of projects, programs, bills and/or resolutions that were passed that directly affect the academic units/constituents; and
      3. Requests for issues/concerns from the academic units/constituents.
224.02 Senators shall represent to the GPSA governing body the general concerns of their constituents as well as such specific responses to issues and queries as may be required by, or in, any bill or resolution passed by the GPSA Senate.
224.03 Senators shall attend all meetings of the GPSA Senate.
   A. In the event that a Senator cannot attend a GPSA Senate meeting, a proxy may be designated to vote on the academic unit/constituency’s behalf.
      1. Proxies must be members of the same academic unit/constituency as the senator they are replacing.
      2. Proxies must have the consent of the senator to attend the GPSA Senate meetings and must sign in at said meeting.
      3. The Senator must inform the proxy of all current business.
224.04 Senators shall be familiar with the GPSA Constitution, By-Laws and Standing Rules and Regulations.
224.05 Senators shall serve the GPSA on a committee or perform another service to the GPSA as directed by the GPSA Vice President and/or the GPSA President.
224.06 Senators shall carry out any additional duties outlined in their Standing Rules and Regulations, the GPSA Constitution, and the GPSA By-laws.

For your commitment to GPSA and with fulfillment of the above duties you will be paid each semester provided that you fill out and turn in the Leadership Award Form. Failure to complete the above duties and turn in the appropriate form will result in no pay and may result in your department being in default due to attendance.

Please fill out, sign, and return the form below.

I, ___________________________________________ (print name), GPSA representative from __________________________________________ (department) agree to the above duties of a GPSA Senator. In addition, I would like to participate in __________________________________________ (list at least one committee).

Signed: ____________________________ Date: _______________