

the content areas

Secondary School
Literacy Instruction

Seventh
Edition

roe / stoodt / burns

Based on the belief that teachers who know how to teach reading strategies appropriate to their subject area can improve their students' success in the classroom, Secondary School Literacy Instruction prepares secondary school teachers to teach the subject area content more meaningfully and effectively.

For more information

Contact our Faculty Services Center at (800) 733-1717 or your local Houghton Mifflin sales representative.

Visit Teacher Education Station at <http://college.hmco.com> and select "Education."

We welcome your feedback

Please send your comments about Roe/Stoodt/Burns, Secondary School Literacy Instruction: The Content Areas, Seventh Edition, to Houghton Mifflin Company, College Marketing, 222 Berkeley Street, Boston, MA 02116-3764.

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN

New Ways to Know®

ISBN 0-618-04293-8

9 780618 042937

90000

3-48425

Throughout this edition, you'll find heightened emphasis on what secondary teachers need to know to improve literacy skills in their subject areas.

PART I Contexts of Literacy Instruction in a Technological Age

1 Content Area Literacy in a Changing World

CHAPTER 1

New emphasis on

- important new standards in literacy
- diversity
- the challenge to literacy proficiency of language and inclusion trends

2 Integrating Technology in Content Area Literacy Instruction

CHAPTER 2

Created to satisfy the demand for more information on how technology is used in content area teaching and learning

PART II Strategies for Learning: Constructing Meaning and Studying

3 A Conceptual Approach to Developing Meaningful Vocabulary

4 The Process of Constructing Meaning in Texts

5 Strategies for Constructing Meaning in Texts

6 Location and Organization of Information

7 Reading-Study Strategies for Textbook Use

PART III Applying Literacy Instruction in the Content Areas

8 Writing in the Content Areas

9 Literature-Based and Thematic Approaches to Content Area Teaching

10 Reading in the Content Areas: I

11 Reading in the Content Areas: II

PART IV Instruction and Assessment of All Learners

12 Literacy Instruction for Diverse Students

CHAPTER 12

Placed at the end of the book, extends coverage of the diversity realities introduced in chapter 1

13 Classroom Literacy Assessment