ANNOTATED INSTRUCTOR'S EDITION

"... the best book on the market for teaching critical reading."

— Marcy Lee, Mt. Hood Community College

Designed for reading courses at the intermediate and advanced level, Developing Critical Reading Skills offers students a wide range of interesting and diverse selections and helps them build the skills they need to analyze, interpret, question, and even challenge the words of the writer.

The seventh edition includes:

- New Coverage of Reading Textbooks: Passages from leading college textbooks appear in Parts I–III, and a new Part VI, "Reading Textbooks," includes a complete textbook chapter and coverage of the SQ3R method.
- New Attention to Visuals: A wealth of new visual material is accompanied by instruction in how to read, interpret, and evaluate this material.
- New Selections: Writers featured in this edition include Laura Hillenbrand, Barack Obama, Michael Pollan, and Diane Ravitch.
- More on Critical Reading and the World Wide Web: The text now offers students even more help with locating and evaluating information from the Web.

Also available:

Online Learning Center: A dedicated OLC at www.mhhe.com/spears offers students additional exercises and activities, all written by the author, and provides instructors with quizzes and tests as well as advice on teaching every chapter of the text.

Passport to College Reading: This powerful new online resource offers robust and engaging exercises and support to reinforce key reading skills. Features include:

- A comprehensive diagnostic test that creates a personalized itinerary directing students to the skill areas they need to practice.
- Concept summaries, abundant activities, and quizzes for over 35 reading skills.
- Hundreds of practice readings—with comprehension questions—in over 40 academic subject areas.
- An easy-to-use gradebook for instructors.
