

Aberdeen Potato IPM Field Day

University of Idaho
Extension

August 16th, 2023 ■ 8:30 – 12:00 pm ■ Aberdeen R&E Center

8:30 am – Registration begins
9 am to 12:00 pm – IPM Field Day Tour
12:00 pm – Lunch

FREE REGISTRATION & FREE LUNCH!

1 ISDA Credit Available
CCA Credits Available:
Integrated Pest Management: 2.5
Crop Management: 0.5
Professional Development: 0.5

Tour consists of:

- ✓ IPM management of PVY for seed potato growers.
- ✓ Use of fungicide seed piece treatments to manage tuber diseases.
- ✓ Updates on management of early blight, late blight, pink rot, and other potato diseases.
- ✓ Effect of simulated excess rainfall on potato herbicide injury.
- ✓ Vine Kill Speed X Timing: Effect on Blackspot Bruise.
- ✓ Overview of the USDA breeding program and breeding for resistance to diseases/pathogens.
- ✓ Working with USDA breeding program and disease resistance traits.
- ✓ Whole seed experiment to optimize seed potato quality.
- ✓ Fertility requirements of different potato varieties.

For More Information Contact:

Kasia Duellman □ kduellman@uidaho.edu