

International Academy for the Study of the Jurisprudence of the Family

12th International Symposium

Family and Technology: Challenges and Opportunities

Faculty of Law
University of Maribor (Slovenia)
Mladinska 9, 2000 Maribor
May 27-29, 2019

Monday May 27

8:30 - 9:00 Registration (continues through the morning)

9:00 - 9:30 Welcome Remarks
Prof. dr. Vesna Rijavec, Dean of The Faculty of Law, University of Maribor
Prof. dr. Stefano Troiano, President of the IASJF, University of Verona

9:30 - 10:00 Panel 1 Keynote Presentation (Moderator, Prof. dr. Stefano Troiano)
Benjamin Lesjak (University of Primorska and Safer Internet Centre, Slovenia)
Parents and Kids on Social Media

10:00 - 11:00 Panel 2: Plenary Presentations (Moderator, Prof. dr. Carlos Martínez de Aguirre)
Scott FitzGibbon (Boston College Law School, USA)
Raising your Son to be a Gentleman and your Daughter to be a Lady and to Use the Internet Accordingly

Antonio Legerén-Molina (Universidade of A Coruña, Spain)
Is there a digital parental responsibility?

11:00 - 11.30 Coffee Break

Carmen Garcimartín (University of A Coruña, Spain)
Sharenting and children's privacy

Ram Rivlin (Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Faculty of Law, Israel)
Family Law and the Community in the Virtual Era: The Effect of Social Media

12:30 – 14:30 Lunch

14:30 - 15:00 Panel 3: Keynote Presentation (Moderator, Prof. dr. Scott FitzGibbon)

Borut Holcman (University of Maribor, Faculty of Law, Slovenia)

Honor Your Father and Your Mother. Family between Written in the Stone and the Artificial Intelligence

15:00 - 17:00 Panel 4: Plenary Presentations (Moderator, Prof. dr. Gordana Kovaček Stanić)

Avishalom Westreich (College of Law and Business in Ramat Gan, Israel)

Is Transparency Good for Jewish Couples?

Advantages and Disadvantages of a Public Database for Premarital Counselling

Monika Niedźwiedz & Piotr Mostowik (University of Cracow, Poland)

European Union law and international standards:

an obstacle or catalyst for effective protecting children from dangers of pornography in Internet?

Antonio Jorge Pereira Júnior (UNIFOR – Fortaleza, Brazil)

The Internet as a television: the extension of the duties of broadcasters to companies operating in the virtual environment according to the Federal Constitution of Brazil and its impact on the protection of children and families.

Jennifer Gitahi (Strathmore University, Nairobi, Kenya)

Cybercrime: Towards the Effective Protection of Children in Kenya

Suzana Kraljić (Faculty of Law, University of Maribor, Slovenia)

Digital Immigrants and Age Discrimination

17:00 -18.00 Walking Tour of the City of Maribor (Mladen Kraljić, University of Maribor)

20:00 Gala Dinner

Tuesday May 28

9:15 - 9:45 Panel 5: Keynote Presentation (Moderator, Prof. dr. Carmen Garcimartín)

Urška Kežmah (Advocate, Former President of Slovenian Association of Judges and Judge at District Court of Maribor, Slovenia)

IT in judicial proceedings

9:45-12.15 Panel 6: Plenary Presentations (Moderator, Prof. dr. Carmen Domínguez Hidalgo)

Yitshak Cohen (Law School, Jerusalem Campus, Ono Academic College, Israel)

Family and Technology: the Challenge in Israel

Aliza Bazak (Tel Aviv University, Israel)

The Impact of Technology on Rabbinical Rulings in Divorce Cases:

an Analysis of the Use of Shaming to Sanction Recalcitrant Husbands

10:45 - 11.15 Coffee Break

Carlos Martínez de Aguirre (University of Saragossa, Spain)
Reflections on Surrogacy and International Surrogacy Arrangements

Sharon Shakargy (Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel)
Choice of Law for Surrogacy Agreements: Very Special Contracts Call for Very Special Rules

12:15 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 - 15.00 Assembly IASJF

15:00 - 18:00 Panel 7: Plenary Presentations (Moderator, Prof. dr. Suzana Kraljić)

Carmen Domínguez Hidalgo (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)
The impact on parenthood of assisted reproductive technology in Chile

Michael J. Broyde (Emory University School of Law, Atlanta, USA)
The Role of Technology in Determining Paternity and Maternity: a Few Jewish Law Thoughts

Gordana Kovaček Stanić (Faculty of Law, University of Novi Sad, Serbia)
*Assisted Reproduction Technology:
Child's interests in being raised by two parents*

16:30 – 17:00 Coffee Break

María Sara Rodríguez (Universidad de los Andes, Chile)
*The Technological Family: The Baby Industry Reaching Out the End of World
Should we recognize a right to have a child and to establish a family through surrogacy?*

Sandra O. Samardžić (Faculty of Law, University of Novi Sad, Serbia)
Preimplantation genetic diagnosis and the right to equality

18.00 - 18.30 Concluding Remarks

University of Maribor, Faculty of Law, Representative
IASJF President

Wednesday May 28

Tour to Ptuj and Lendava, Slovenia