

NOTICE of the 2016 (Ninth) Annual Symposium of the International Academy for the Study of the Jurisprudence of the Family.

The International Academy for the Study of the Jurisprudence of the Family (“IASJF”) is pleased to announce that it will hold its 9th international symposium on the jurisprudence of the family on the topic of “Family and Human Rights.”

It would be held on Wednesday and Thursday, June 15-16, 2016, at San Pablo Catholic University Faculty of Law, located in Arequipa, Perú. It would be followed with an organized tour to the City of Arequipa (which has been declared "World Heritage), which would take place on Friday, June 17th.

The Symposium will address the issues related to the topic from a juridical point of view; interdisciplinary presentations are also welcome.

Persons wishing to present a scholarly paper at the symposium should submit a short abstract of the paper they propose (no more than one page) including a working title, the identity, institutional affiliation and full contact information of the author(s), and a brief description of the paper proposed. Proposals should be sent to Professor Lynn D. Wardle (BYU, US) at wardlel@law.byu.edu, or to Professor Carlos Martínez de Aguirre (University of Zaragoza, Spain) at aguirre@unizar.es, or to Professor Rafael Santa María d'Angelo (Universidad Católica San Pablo, Arequipa, Perú) at rsantamaria@ucsp.edu.pe by 30 April 2016.

Acceptances will be on a rolling-acceptance basis. All symposium participants must register ($ 85 Academy Members, $ 130 non-Members, when registered by 30 April 2016; after this date, 25 $ will be added to the regular fees: $ 110 for Academy Members, $ 155 for non-Members) and pay for their own transportation and hotel. Fee includes coffee breaks, lunch at San Pablo University, local transportation and a gala dinner. Please, check for updated news about this symposium on <http://www.iasjf.org/>.
