Janet, Garden
Public Speaking I

In the Garden

I

Old folks see the tulip red
Growing in my garden bed
Childhood with a ~~childhood~~ sight,
Peeps into the blossoms bright
And upon a silver chair
Sees her fairy sitting there.

II

Old folks walk my garden round
With an air that's most profound
Seeing here and there a weed,
Noting blossoms gone to seed,
Little Janet though can tell
Visitors where goblins dwell.

III

Age which knows so much can see
All the dead limbs on the tree
Every blemish round the place
But Janet with a happier face
Has a thousand charms to show
Charms which only children know
