

We Want
our Printing to Do

in a position to furn-
anything that you may that line. Our plant
and to none in the state.

orkmanship
the Best!

need of sending away for your
we can furnish them to you at low consistent with good work and stock.

Graving and bossing a Specialty

OOSE LEAF LEDGER SYS-
will save you much Bookkeeping

ow Printing Publishing
pany, Lim'd

THE MAN OR WOMAN WHO BUYS ALAMEDA

Today is Getting a Life Income
at a Few Cents on the Dollar

Today
Any man who has $1000 can invest in it

Alameda
and have 99 out of 100 chances of having it earn him from $100 to $300 a month

The Alameda
Has the ore. You do not have to help find it or help pay for it

Big, Expensive Experiments
We have the ore and on a $1000 investment will pay all your expenses to go to see it

The Safest and Surest Mines in the World Are the COEUR D'ALENE LEAD AND ZINC MINES

Fountain Menu
Here are a few of our popular specials which our customers tell us are the most satisfying and delicious

L. J. MCPHEE
PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST
100 South St.

BRUTAL TREATMENT OF A LITTLE GIRL

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8.—Nothing was perhaps the testimony of President Smith of the Mormon church, before the senate committee on privileges and elections two years ago, has caused so wide indignation as the case of the 14-year-old daughter of the late Brigham Young, who was sold by her father to a man in the city of San Francisco for $100. The girl was sold to a man who was known to her as "Uncle Sam," who subjected the girl to all sorts of cruel and inhuman treatment during the years she spent in his hands.

ABOUT TOWN

Miss J. C. O'Connell is here today from Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Planch and Miss Kate Planch left today with child for St. Louis.

A. C. White, a student of Harvard, is a student visitor in Boston.

Admiral G. W. Bagin, of the fleet, is spending a few days in Boston before sailing for the Coast of Alaska coast line.

L. L. Roberts, traveling representative of Bailey-Mansueto Hardware company of Boston, is representing his company in Boston today.

Mr. Samuel Clark, who lives in the west part of town, is secretary of the city club in an old man and is suffering from the influenza epidemic.

Nathaniel Burdick, a graduate of the military department of the navy, recently came down from Wallcut to the Marine corps of his old regiment's meeting at Paradise today.

Victor Paine, one of this year's graduates of the Massachusetts institute of technology, has just returned from Chattanooga, where he is representing the university's interests in the next next meeting.

An ice cream social will be held on the lawn adjoining the Metropolitan Casino tomorrow, under the patronage of Mrs. W. G. Chandler, Wanda Thompson, Katherine Choate, Ernest D. Hill, G. B. Florence, J. B. Coffey, F. K.

For the week ending Aug. 5, the following letters were reported as received: W. G. Chandler, Wanda Thompson, Katherine Choate, Ernest D. Hill, G. B. Florence, J. B. Coffey, F. K.

A dinner to be given in aid of the fund for the relief of the Armenian refugees will be given at the Metropolitan Casino tomorrow.

When working call up Campbell's Directory, Page 100.

STORE NEWS
Our Milliner has gone West. Two-thirds the Fall Dress Goods will be here in a day or two.

The Greater Boston
It's Second Annual Display and Sale of

JUST RECEIVED
From Fox Pines and Balls. More Long Wines Still Come. The Grapes Made for Boston. Better Quality. Best Price and Selection.

Sample Hosiery

By actual count and invoice over 10,000 Pairs (no two alike). All mankind can be fitted for any occasion. A glimpse at South Show Window will give you an idea, although hardly two per cent of this great collection is exhibited therein. This is the big Hosiery Event of the year. Last year over 5,000 pairs were sold in three days. This season the collection is greater and the Prices on each and Every Pair One-Third Less than Actual Cost of Manufacture.

"GET NEXT." All Ready at 7 a. m. TOMORROW

More Bargains
That get the business. Most quite Netting, 2 yards wide, per yard 6c

2,000 Yards Fine Lawns
Retailed at 10, 12 1/2 and 15cts. The lot Tomorrow for a Nickel

We're still about 300 Sample Lace Curtains left. We'll continue to sell them Tomorrow for 25c

We're Doubling the Hardware
Department. Many New Lines opening up daily. Come and see.

The New Fall Suits and Coats
Are pouring in. Advantages States which our New York buyers consider correct. We'll be very glad to show them to you.

The Wash Goods
Are fast melting away. No such values have ever been offered in Get Next. We'll do the work of 15c 5c

Clearing the Dressing Sackes at Prices Little or Nothing. All those cool pretty Sackes reduced to a point that does not represent wholesale cost.

THE GREATER BOSTON STORE

ROWDIES SKIP
"The statement that a feud was on at Potlatch is an error. The trouble was at Potlatch."

MOSCOW HOTEL BARBER SHOP
J. W. THOMPSON, Proprietor

WONDER BAR
J. H. MORDHORST, Prop.

BRING HIS BRIDE TO POTLATCH
Henry Ambell, a prominent merchant of Potlatch, was married in Spokane yesterday, to Miss Ina Palmer, of Moscow, Minn., the ceremony being performed at the presence of Rev. M. E. Duna. Mr. Ambell will bring the bride to Potlatch in a week.

The G. E. M. Lamps are the latest and most efficient lamps in use and produce nearly double the light per watt that of the regular oil style. These lamps are made in 70, 105 and 150 candlepower, using 125, 187 and 250 watts per hour respectively. Cost of lamps complete with prism shades and holders:

70 Candlepower	$1.75
105 Candlepower	2.25
150 Candlepower	2.75

Moscow Electric Light & Power Company
Telephone 301

SPECIAL MOUNTING EXCURSION RATES VIA O. & N. R.
August 7, 8 and 9 and September 1 and 2, the O. & N. R. will send through to Moscow, Idaho, and return at one fare plus bus charges for the round trip with return limit of 30 days. The pretickets expire at O. & N. R. agents.

MASSMEETING

Mayor Morgan announces that the city will hold a mass meeting on Friday night to discuss the proposed annexation of the city to the city of Boston. The meeting will be held at the city hall and will be presided over by Mayor Morgan. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock and will continue until 11 o'clock.