

A Few of the Girls with the "Royal Chef"

The appearance of the "Royal Chef," a musical comedy of new regulations which comes to the Grand Theatre for one night, Thursday, September 13th, marks the opening of the theatrical season for 1900. The Journal has already published a partial list of the bookings which will be offered during the coming season and largely of names which are new to the city. The equal of which has never before offered in any city and will not be offered again unless they serve the purpose of the public.

The "Royal Chef" opened the Grand Theatre of San Clara, Wis. August 21st, and before its subsequent departure it had secured several days to the city.

GEORGE A. SNOW AND OTHER EXPERTS SAY THAT ALAMEDA

Is the best investment in the Coeur d'Alene fields today. It is easily worth 50 cents a share on present showing, in rich ore and adjoining a mine, the same vein running through Alameda properties a 500 feet that has ore bodies 50 feet in width. There is only a little of the treasury stock to be sold at 10 cents a share. 500,000 500 SHARES $100 FOR 1,000 SHARES $1,000 FOR 10,000 SHARES
