

The Idea of Justice

Richard B. Wells

© 2023

Table of Contents

List of Figures	v
List of Tables	vi
Chapter 1 Ancient Notions of Justice	1
1. The Appearances of Justice	1
2. The Notion of Justice and Natural Communities	7
3. Enter the Philosophers	12
4. The Decline of Philosophy and Development of the Roman Legal System	16
5. Summary of Ancient Principles of Justice	22
6. References	23
Chapter 2 From Classical to Modern Law	25
1. The Fall of Rome	25
2. Lawmaking in Medieval Europe	27
3. Imperial Chinese Law	30
4. Europe's Early Modern Age	32
5. Notions of Social Contracting	36
6. Toward a Post-Contemporary Science of Justice	48
7. References	49
Chapter 3 Epistemology-Centered Principles	52
1. Metaphysics	52
2. The Modern Critical Theory	55
3. Mathematics	58
4. Some Basic Epistemological Definitions, Principles and Theorems	60
4.1 Our Empirical Knowledge of Human Beings is Holistic	60
4.2 Mental Representation and Depictions	62
4.3 Mathematical "Anatomy" of Nous	65
4.3.1 The Synthesis in Sensibility	67
4.3.2 Apperception and Imagination	70
4.3.3 Reflective Judgment	72
4.3.4 The Process of Practical Reason	78
4.3.5 The Process of Determining Judgment	82
4.3.6 Practical Imperatives vs. Theoretical Imperatives	86
5. References	87
Chapter 4 Justice and Human Nature	90
1. Justice Manifested as Phenomena of Human Nature	90
2. The Empirical Development of Moral Judgments	91
3. Kant's Moral Categories	96
4. Interest, Approval, and Duties	100
5. Duties	105
6. The Problem of Justice	106
7. Interest Commitment Causes Judgments of Justice and Injustice	115
8. References	116
Chapter 5 Challenges for Institution of Justice Systems	118
1. The Empirical Complexity of Justice and Injustice	118
2. Design Principles for the Institution of Justice Systems	121
2.1 The principle of justifiable institutions	122
2.2 The principle of progressive education	124

2.3	The principle of human determinability of Progress	125
2.4	The principle of necessity for flexible institutions	127
3.	The Momenta of the Enlightenment Principles	128
3.1	The Momenta of Quantity for Institution of Justice Systems	129
3.2	The Momenta of Quality for Institution of Justice Systems	130
3.3	The Momenta of Relation for Institution of Justice Systems	134
3.4	The Momenta of Modality for Institution of Justice Systems	137
4.	Root Challenges to Achieving Enlightened Institution of Justice	138
5.	References	139
Chapter 6 Human Factors in the Satisfaction of Justice		141
1.	Sovereignty and Justice	141
2.	The Passion for Distinction	143
3.	Stereotyping	146
4.	Bigotry	149
5.	Extravagances in Reasoning	151
6.	Relationship of These Factors in Regard to the Problem of Justice	160
7.	References	161
Chapter 7 Justice and the Institution of Governance		163
1.	Law-craft and Governance	163
2.	Justice and "Branches" of Governance	170
3.	Justice and Law	174
4.	Deontological Transgressions and Principles of Justice	179
5.	Citizens, Criminals, and Outlaws	184
6.	References	190
Chapter 8 Justice and Social Compacts		192
1.	The Objective Ideal of Justice	192
2.	The Mental Function of Objectivity	193
3.	The Pervasiveness and Diversity of Social Compacts	196
4.	Institution by Pyramidal Hierarchies	202
5.	The Idea of Heterarchy Structure for Justice Systems	204
6.	Heterarchy and Hierarchy	210
	People	213
	Mini-Communities	214
	Agency Functions	216
7.	Qualifying Authority Figures	218
8.	References	224
Chapter 9 Justice and the General Will		227
1.	The Problem of "the General Will"	227
2.	The Idea of General Will as a Homologue	230
3.	The Phenomenon of Mind as a Homologue for General Will	233
4.	General Considerations for a General Will Homologue for Justice Systems	238
5.	The Social Contract and the General Will	246
6.	Understanding and Identifying the General Will	251
7.	References	254
Chapter 10 Justice and Lawmaking		257
1.	Liberty with Justice	257
2.	Legislative Schemas	261
3.	The Legislative Function	266

4.	Prescriptive, Proscriptive, and Exculpatory Laws	271
5.	Concordances with Moral Categories	272
6.	Concordances with the Moral Categories of Relation	278
7.	Concordances with Kant's Moral Categories of Modality	282
	First Modal Function	283
	Second Modal Function	285
	Third Modal Function	289
8.	Governance, Lawmaking, and Justice Systems	291
9.	Summary	292
10.	References	293
Chapter 11 Civil Rights		295
1.	Notions of "Right"	295
2.	Property Rights	299
3.	Other Civil Rights Contained Under the Pursuit of Happiness	301
4.	The Empirical Origins of Civil Rights	304
5.	The Power of a Person	307
	5.1 Physical Personfähigkeit	308
	5.2 Intellectual Personfähigkeit	315
	5.3 Tangible Personfähigkeit	319
	5.4 Persuasive Personfähigkeit	324
6.	References	327
Chapter Appendix		329
Chapter 12 Heterarchical Justice Systems		331
1.	Mini-Communities	331
2.	Boards of Merit	334
3.	Boards of Charter	340
4.	Boards of Right	342
5.	Non-judiciary Justice Agencies	346
	5.1 The Management Aspect	348
	5.2 The Technical Aspect	351
	5.3 The Ethics Aspect	354
6.	Justifiable Hierarchy	359
7.	The Objects of Popular Government	361
8.	Heterarchical Law and Mini-Communities	363
9.	Closing Remarks	367
10.	References	370
Chapter Appendix		371
Citations		377

List of FiguresChapter 2:

Figure 1	Europe, Islamic Africa, and the Near East in 1199 AD	29
----------	--	----

Chapter 3:

Figure 1	Illustration of the mathematical concept of an Organized Being	61
Figure 2	Illustrations of analytic divisions of matter (m) and form (f)	64
Figure 3	2LAR for the general representation of a thing	64
Figure 4	The mathematical organization of nous	66
Figure 5	Detailed description of the synthesis in sensibility	67
Figure 6	Historical "timeline" of the European migration period	70
Figure 7	Simplified re-depiction of figure 4	73
Figure 8	1LSR illustration of the synthesis of the Standpoints	74
Figure 9	3LAR organization of the process of reflective judgment	75
Figure 10	The 2LAR structure of teleological reflective judgment	78
Figure 11	Practical Reason and Its Information Flow Sources and Destinations	79
Figure 12	2LAR structure of the momenta of practical judgment	80
Figure 13	2LAR structure of motoregulatory expression in the logical division of psyche	81
Figure 14	3LAR organization of determinant judgments	82
Figure 15	2LAR of the categories of understanding	83
Figure 16	The logical functions of understanding in judgment	83
Figure 17	A simple illustration of the structure of the manifold of concepts	84

Chapter 4:

Figure 1	Stages of development in a child's moral judgment	92
Figure 2	2LAR of Kant's moral categories	97
Figure 3	2LAR of the idea of commitment	107

Chapter 5:

Figure 1	A personal society of Person P divided into mini-Communities	119
Figure 2	2LAR organization of institutional design principles of the Enlightenment	122
Figure 3	Interests relationship between population size and levels of government in a nation-Society	123

Chapter 6:

Figure 1	Kant's moral categories	145
----------	-------------------------	-----

Chapter 7:

Figure 1	Overlap of congruent interests by population coverage	167
Figure 2	Circumplex mapping of political factions in the Revolutionary era United States	168
Figure 3	Synthesis of the Standpoints in Critical Epistemology	170
Figure 4	2LAR of Enlightened Institution	171
Figure 5	Kant's moral categories	180
Figure 6	Empirical stages in the child's development of moral judgment	182
Figure 7	The 2LAR of deontological commitment	184
Figure 8	Illustration of the presence of outlaws and criminals in a civil Society	185

Chapter 8:

Figure 1	Synthesis in continuity of reflective judgment and adaptive psyche	194
Figure 2	Mathematical mental organization in the Organized Being model	196
Figure 3	Evolution of Massachusetts townships from 1642 to 1760	204

Figure 4	Illustration of Community Growth by Accretion	205
Figure 5	Buildup of an individual person's personal society by accretion	206
Figure 6	Enemy-building by social accretion	207
Figure 7	The Inverted Pyramid Model of heterarchy organization	213

Chapter 9:

Figure 1	2LAR description of appetitive power in practical Reason	231
Figure 2	An example of inverted pyramid heterarchy organization	233
Figure 3	illustration of information processing in the synthesis of appetite	235
Figure 4	2LAR structure of practical judgment	236
Figure 5	Interplay of affective and practical processes	237
Figure 6	Information flows initiated by a practical judgment of reevaluation	237
Figure 7	2LAR of the human capacity for motoregulatory expression	238
Figure 8	Synthesis of information in the motivational dynamic	240
Figure 9	Second level analytic representation of the motivational dynamic	240
Figure 10	Illustration of the manifold of a generalizing concept of "theft"	244

Chapter 10:

Figure 1	Hierarchy-ordered caste Society typical under the rule of monarchy or aristocracy	263
Figure 2	Territory of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy from 1638-1711	264
Figure 3	Gallup poll findings of Americans' job approval rating of the U.S. Congress	268
Figure 4	Kant's moral categories	272
Figure 5	Piaget's stages of rule development	273
Figure 6	Mathematical functions of synthesis for the composition of laws (lawmaking)	276
Figure 7	Some kinds of mini-Communities a person P might have civil membership in	279
Figure 8	2LAR of a justice system in terms of functional concordance with Kant's moral categories	291

Chapter 11:

Figure 1	Circumplex model of historical systems of government	304
Figure 2	Illustration of a granulated social environment	312
Figure 3	3LAR mathematical structure of the objectives of public education	318
Figure 4	3LAR organization of functional classifications of Progress-oriented public instructional education	319

Chapter 12:

Figure 1	U.S. federal judicial branch court system	333
Figure 2	An example of "inverted pyramid" heterarchy structure	338
Figure 3	Socio-political spectrum of attitudes and interests	344
Figure 4	Social granulation brought about through uncivic socio-political competitions	345
Figure 5	A cartoon caricature of "Republicans and Democrats" in Congress	345
Figure 6	1LSR depiction of institution operation	348
Figure 7	A) Personal society of a person P illustrating his multiple mini-Communities and other persons and mini-Communities with whom he has adversarial conflicts of interest; B) Illustration of interactions among mini-Communities within a general Society	364
	force 1970 to 2010	442

List of TablesChapter 7:

Table 1	The Revolutionary State Constitutions (1776-1780)	169
---------	---	-----